Italy's Undiscovered Jewel – Le Marche

Based in Pesaro

Sunday 2 – Sunday 9 September 2018

Le Marche stretches for 150 km along the Adriatic coast with hilltop towns to rival those of Tuscany and Umbria. Our base for the week will be in the seaside town of Pesaro, birthplace of the great composer, Rossini. During your stay you will have an opportunity to visit Loreto, the Marian shrine where the Holy House of Nazareth is located in the church and visited by over 50 Popes. You will visit the tiny independent and oldest sovereign state in the world, San Marino, dating back to the 4th century and now a UNESCO World Heritage site. You will also visit Urbino – a walled town nestled on a sloping hillside which retains much of its medieval aspects including the Palazzo Ducale and birthplace to the artist Raphael.
