- Audited Accounts: The parish recently received its audited accounts for 2017 in compliance with the Charities Act. They show an increase of 12% on the Sunday Mass Plate collection and a further 14% increase on the Envelope Restoration Fund, from the 2016 accounts. Thanks to one and all for your great generosity, loyalty and support in the financial matters of the parish and indeed in all aspects of parish pastoral life, making our parish a welcoming and vibrant community. Sincere thanks to Francis Carolan who has been Chairperson of the Finance Committee for all his Trojan work, dedication, insight, energy, vision and commitment over the past four years. He is succeeded by Ciaran Boylan, who is wished well in his new role. Summary copies are available at the weekend Masses.
- General Data Protection Regulation: In compliance with the new General Data Protection Regulation – in force since May – all requests for personal data including baptismal, confirmation certs etc, must be applied for using the appropriate form and accompanied by ID.
- Web Cam: In recent days the webcam has been off the air for essential upgrades which were necessary for the continued advances in technology. It's now fully operational again and sincere apologies for any inconvenience which were beyond our control.
- Parish Child Safeguarding: Our Parish Child Safeguarding Team will meet on this Wednesday night at 8p.m in The Parish House to complete the Diocesan Audit.
