Thoughts of Pope Francis

Pope Francis met with the Sporting Association of Lazio and advised..... "Never let the practice and competition get in the way of going to Mass, studying for school, being with friends and helping the poor. Every sport has its worth – not just in the physical and social benefits, but also morally in the ways it can offer people, and especially children, a chance to experience a more balanced life, self control, sacrifice and loyalty toward others. I encourage you to be welcoming, to value diverse talents and offer a way for people to experience friendship and harmony without discrimination".
