VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD In the coming days a 2016 vocations calendar will be circulated to the Parishes throughout the Diocese. The Aim of the Calendar is to create awareness regarding vocations to priesthood in homes of our parishes, to encourage families to talk about and to pray for more vocations and to help create a strong culture of vocation to the Priesthood in our Diocese. The calendars will cost €5 each and any profits made through the sale of the calendars will go towards the further promotion of vocations. Your support for this initiative is greatly appreciated. Also check out our new vocations promotion video on Facebook at 'Meath Dioceses Vocations' and always remember to keep vocations to the Priesthood in our Diocese firmly in your prayers. www.dioceseofmeath.ie/vocations. This calendar is now available in the Parish Office and Kingscourt Church.

WYD KRAKOW, POLAND! We welcome Niamh Gavin, a member of the Diocesan World Youth Day Committee, who will speak at Masses this weekend about next years pilgrimage to Poland when young Catholics (18-35) from around the world will gather with Pope Francis to celebrate the gift of Faith and Life. See www.dioceseofmeath.ie/youth or contact Fr. Mark for more details. We pray that this festival of faith may kindle in young people a desire to serve Christ and to build up the Church.
