World Meeting of Families 2018:

At least three thousand people are needed to assist with planning and organising the World Meeting of Families in Dublin in August 2018 which Pope Francis hopes to attend. The six day festival of faith takes place from 21st – 28th August with the theme "The Gospel of the Family: Joy for the World". Volunteers will be needed in a variety of roles, such as acting as event ambassadors, stewards, meeting and greeting guests, medical services, translation, administration, logistics, communications etc.

Visit www.worldmeeting2018.ie/volunteer for further information.

Father's Day:

We wish all Dads a Happy Fathers Day!

Peters Pence:

Our collection next weekend is to support Pope Francis in his worldwide Mission and your support would be appreciated.
