Relics of Saint Oliver Plunkett:

The relics of Saint Oliver Plunkett will visit our parish on Saturday 8th July for Mass at 6p.m. Oliver Plunkett was born in our diocese in Loughcrew, Oldcastle on November 1st 1625. He studied in the Irish College in Rome and was ordained a priest in 1654, becoming Archbishop of Armagh in 1657. At a time of severe division he maintained his duties in the face of persecution and reorganising the Irish Church. He was eventually arrested and tried in London where he was hanged, drawn and quartered. Oliver Plunkett was beatified in 1920 and canonised by Pope Paul VI in 1975, the first Irish Saint for 700 years. This is the first time his relics have been in our parish. July 1st is the feast day of Saint Oliver Plunkett.
