The Relics of Saint Oliver Plunkett:

The relics of Saint Oliver Plunkett visit our parish on next Saturday, 8th July for Mass at 6p.m. Oliver Plunkett was born in our diocese in Loughcrew, Oldcastle on November 1st 1625. He studies in the Irish College in Rome and was ordained a priest in 1654, becoming Archbishop of Armagh in 1657. At a time of severe division he maintained his duties in the face of persecution and reorganising the Irish Church. He was eventually arrested and tried in London where he was hanged, drawn and quartered. Oliver Plunkett was beatified in 1920 and canonised by Pope Paul V1 in 1975, the first Irish Saint for 700 years. This is the first time his relics have been in our parish. July 1st is the feast day of Saint Oliver Plunkett.

The Parish Office:
Annual Lourdes Collection:

The Parish Office is closed from July 3rd – 7th inclusive!

Each year our parish supports those sick and assisted pilgrims who travel to Lourdes on the Meath Diocesan pilgrimage from 12th – 17th September. A Church Collection will take place after all Masses next weekend and your support would be greatly appreciated.

Schools:

On this first week of school holidays, we wish all an enjoyable summer and ask a blessing on all in 6th class ,as many begin their secondary education at Colaiste Dun an Ri. this autumn. Thank you to the Boards of Management, Principals, Staff and Parents Associations for their dedication and commitment to the children and families.
