This week, in preparation for Pentecost is entitled "Come Holy Spirit into the lives of us your family" The Bishop has written to all parishes in recent times. He makes a number of points, which we now bring to your attention: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Our Churches remain open for quiet prayer. ❖ In Phase 2 it is expected that a slightly larger number of people will be permitted at funerals, but still restricted. ❖ In Phase 4, commencing on July 20th, it is hoped that the Churches will re-open for public Masses and all services. ❖ All Cemetery Sunday Masses and Blessings of Graves are postponed in the Diocese of Meath. This will mean that in our parish, the traditional date on the August Bank Holiday weekend, August 2nd, will need to be rescheduled, depending on advice, for another appropriate date at the earliest opportunity. Any inconvenience is sincerely regretted. ❖ All Confirmations and First Holy Communions will be rescheduled, likely in late Autumn, but again cannot be confirmed at this time ❖ Parishes will assist all couples in the rescheduling of weddings. ❖ 35% of the clergy of the diocese are cocooning by virtue of age or health. There is one ordination this year with none thereafter for a considerable period. Rationalisations will need to be effected in the diocese in the immediate future.

Webcam & Facebook Broadcast of Services in our Parish.

Since March 13th, all our Masses, Services, Funerals and the various ceremonies of Holy Week and Easter in our parish have been broadcast on the Parish Webcam and on Facebook. Our very sincere thanks to Stephen and Aine who continue to facilitate these services and to Daniel who maintains our parish website. We welcome the hundreds of families in our parish who join virtually each weekend, the large visitor numbers from the four corners provinces of Ireland and the very many from all five continents of the world who have made a real connection with our parish. From the wonderful positive comments received, we believe that we will become an even stronger faith filled community going into the future.
