| Mission Sunday: Remembering our Dead: | Today is Mission Sunday. We acknowledge the great work of our missionaries in serving the universal church. We continue to remember Fr. Octavius who has visited our parish and shared his story and now returned to a parish in Liberia, following completion of post graduate studies in Rome. Our Mass Collection on this Sunday is to support the work of Fr. Octavius and others who are ravaged by poverty, conflict and insecurity. These funds help to build schools, churches and hospitals and supports programmes for the well being of men, women and children. Your financial support in the Offertory collection would be greatly appreciated. Our Annual Mass of Remembrance for all families in our parish who have marked the death of a loved one with their funeral in the parish this past year takes place on Saturday 6th November at 6p.m. Mass. All welcome. |
|---|--|
| Eucharistic Adoration: | Eucharistic Adoration takes place on each Tuesday in Kingscourt from after morning Mass and concluding with The Angelus at 12noon. All are very welcome to attend. |
| The Sick and Housebound: | Fr. Gerry attends to the sick and housebound each month. If a parishioner is ill or advanced in years and unable to join the parish community for Mass, please contact The Parish Office to make the necessary arrangements. |
| Kingscourt Stars: | Congrats to the u-14 Kingscourt Stars Girls team on becoming County champions last weekend! Well done to Ciara, team and mentors. Good luck to the Kingscourt Stars Senior Team in their county semi final. |
| Parish Safeguarding Sunday: | A very sincere word of thanks and appreciation to our parish safeguarding team members. We welcome at this time our children and young people who are gently returning to various parish activities and ministries. We assure all who are involved that our parish follows all the protocols, practices and codes of behaviour ensuring our parish is safe for all our children. The parish safeguarding team will attend a diocesan in-service evening on this Wednesday in Navan. The annual audit will take place in November. |
| Volunteer Readers at Mass: | We wish, in so far as possible, to facilitate families having an anniversary Mass wishing to take part in the readings etc. Please contact Loretto at the Parish Office in the previous week, indicating your intention to participate. |
| Bethany Bereavement Support: | Our Bethany Bereavement Support Team are running their Five Week Healing programme for all our bereaved – with all Covid guidelines in place - in The Parish Centre on November 1 st . Booking is essential and places are limited. Call 087 9591995. Confidentiality is assured. |
| Supporting Families who have lost a child: | We welcome all parents who have lost a child during pregnancy, at birth or at any time after birth to a Special Mass of Remembrance for Parents & their Babies on Sunday 7th November at 12noon in Kingscourt. |
