Your support continues to make a difference and has made a difference, allowing us now to plan for and prioritise the future needs of our developing parish. Our new planned giving boxes are being distributed to the home at this time. They form our primary method of financial support for the parish and its necessary future development needs. We thank all who are currently distributing them to the homes. Many parishioners have requested a Standing Order to be made available. It is now include it on this weekend's parish bulletin. If you have not received a Planned Giving Box, and wish to support the parish financially, please contact The Parish Office. Thank you to one and all. All are welcome to our Annual Service of Prayer for Christian Unity which will take place at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Wednesday 24th January at 7.30p.m. with the guest preacher Abbot Brendan Coffey of Glenstal. Catholic Schools Week will conclude with a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday 28th January at 12noon, and all are welcome. Enrolment in Corlea, Carrickleck, Laragh Muff and St. Joseph's schools for the academic year 2024/2025 is currently taking place. Please contact the individual school before January 26th. We welcome all couples, marking a jubilee of marriage this year to a special St. Valentines Mass on Saturday 10th February at 6p.m. Couples married outside of the parish are asked to contact The Parish Office.
